Introduction

The turmoil in financial markets over the past four years has caused investors to become more risk averse. Wealth preservation has become the most important investment objective for many investors but they still have to place their money where they think it will achieve the best return for a given level of risk. The dilemma facing them, however, is that they must be prepared to accept higher levels of risk to achieve higher returns.

Structured deposits offer a solution to this by enabling investors to manage their risk exposure for a given level of potential return. The opportunity cost is the risk free rate of return that would otherwise be earned over the same investment term. Investors must therefore evaluate the trade-off between these returns in their quest for better performance.

Other factors that need to be considered include the underlying asset of the investment and the term of the deposit. Taking all of these factors into account, investors are increasingly using structured deposits as a separate component in the construction of their investment portfolios in order to produce a more optimal trade-off between risk and return.

Product suitability

This product is suitable for investors who:

- have at least €25,000 to invest
- have a low risk tolerance (total investment return has a very low level of variability)
- are able to commit funds for 5 years and do not anticipate any need to withdraw that money before the Maturity Date, even in the case of an emergency
- are willing to accept a total potential return over the deposit term that will be within a range of 22.5% to 25% (4.5% to 5.0% AER)
- are satisfied with the creditworthiness of KBC Bank Ireland plc, a wholly owned subsidiary of Belgian-based KBC Bank NV

Investment Rationale

The economic policy dilemma

The western world is still suffering from the effects of the financial crisis and economic collapse in 2008. The fundamental problem is the excessive level of debt that has accumulated over the past 30 years. The challenge facing governments and central banks is how to contain the debt crisis and at the same time prevent recessionary forces descending into an economic depression.

The US policy response

In the United States, the Federal Reserve has lowered the target federal funds range to 0% - 0.25% and provided unparalleled amounts of money to support financial markets. Notwithstanding these measures, economic recovery is faltering with unemployment and spare production capacity remaining high.

A long term solution needed in Europe

Economic activity has stalled in Europe but this has been overshadowed by the Euro crisis. The longer the crisis continues, the clearer the need for a radical long term solution that will fundamentally change the way Eurozone member countries must manage their economic affairs.

Investment uncertainty

The mounting scale of the problems in the Eurozone now threatens the stability of the world economy. Investors are losing confidence in the ability of policymakers to tackle the problems of lack of growth, lack of competitiveness and large deficits and are shifting to less risky assets, principally the bonds of the most highly rated governments and bank deposits.

Linking the Bonus Coupon to the EURO STOXX 50 Index

At 31 January 2012, the EURO STOXX 50 Index was 47% below its high point reached in July 2007. In contrast to the Standard & Poor's 500 Index which was 16% below its October 2007 high point and has rebounded by 94% since March 2009, the EURO STOXX 50 has recovered by 34% over the same period.

EURO STOXX 50 Index

Historical Perspective

The chart below shows the price movement of the Index over 6 years from the end of January 2006 to the end of January 2012.

Bonus Coupon Analysis

The Condition to earn the Bonus Coupon is that the Final Price of the Index on any Year End Date is greater than the Start Price (in respect of the first year) or the Final Price on the previous Year End Date (in respect of subsequent years).

Looking at historical data over six years to 31 January 2012 and investing in the EURO STOXX 50 Index every day over that period (1283 observations), the year-on-year performance of the Index would have been positive 45% of the time and negative 55% of the time.

Warning: Past performance is not a reliable guide to future performance.

Investment Returns

KBC Bank Ireland plc provides 100% capital security on the Account which offers a minimum fixed return of 4.5% per annum (AER 4.5%).

In addition, there is the potential to earn a Bonus Coupon of 0.5% per annum if the Final Price of the EURO STOXX 50 Index at a Year End Date is greater than the Start Price (in respect of the first year) or the Final Price at the previous Year End Date (in respect of subsequent years) (the 'Bonus Condition'). Otherwise, no Bonus Coupon will be earned in respect of that year.

All Coupons will be paid at the end of the year to which they refer (minimum 22.5%, AER 4.5%; maximum potential 25%, AER 5.0%).

The table below illustrates how potential returns are calculated, based on a set of assumed interest payments.

Key Features

How does the Secure Income Plus Account work?

1. The Product Producer is:

KBC Bank Ireland plc, Sandwith Street, Dublin 2.

2. Brief Description of the Benefits of the Account:

The Secure Income Plus Account is a 5 year deposit based product that has two income generating components: a Fixed Coupon which pays a fixed rate of 4.5% every year (AER 4.5%) and a Bonus Coupon which potentially pays 0.5% (AER 0.5%) to investors every year.

The Bonus Coupon is dependent on the future investment performance of the EURO STOXX 50 Index. If the Final Price of the Index at any Year End Date is higher than the Start Price (in respect of the first year) or the Final Price at the previous Year End Date (in respect of subsequent years), the Bonus Coupon will be paid to the investor. Otherwise no Bonus Coupon will be paid in respect of any one year.

The minimum return that may be earned on the Bonus Coupon is 0.0% (AER 0.0%). The maximum potential return that may be earned on the Bonus Coupon is 2.5% (AER 0.5%).

The minimum return that the Bank promises to pay is the total return that is earned on the Fixed Coupon, namely 22.5% (AER 4.5%) over the investment term.

The maximum potential total return that may be earned on the Account is 25% (AER 5.0%), which includes both the Fixed Coupon and Bonus Coupon for the duration of the Account.

100% capital security is provided on the Account by KBC Bank Ireland plc.

3. Dividends:

The Secure Income Plus Account Series 8 will not directly invest in securities which are constituents of the Index and by investing in the Account, neither you, as an investor in the Account, nor the Bank will benefit from any dividends paid on those securities.

4. Currency Risk:

The performance of the Index is calculated according to the change in its nominal level and there is consequently no exposure to exchange rates in the Account.

Where does my investment go?

Your proposed investment will be used, at the date of the investment, as follows:

- 100% of your investment will be held on deposit with the Bank. In relation to Interest payable on the Account, you will be entitled to the payment of such Interest annually after deduction of tax (if applicable) in addition to the return of 100% of your investment at maturity.
- The Bank may enter into a swap arrangement with a third party whereby the Bank may agree to exchange the income stream generated by the deposit of your investment for such sums as may be necessary to pay any Interest due on the Account. Any such swap arrangement made by the Bank will not affect the obligation of the Bank with regard to any Interest payable to you under the terms of issue of the Account.
- Any benefit that the Bank receives from your investment over and above the Interest that is payable to you under the terms of the Secure Income Plus Account will be for the Bank's own account. In the event that the Secure Income Plus Account is distributed through an appointed intermediary of the Bank, a distribution fee up to 2% of the investment sum will be payable by the Bank to that intermediary. Any intermediary remuneration will not affect the allocation of your investment in the Secure Income Plus Account or any Interest payable to you under the terms of issue of the Account.

Do I have access to my investment?

Your investment is for the fixed term of the Account and is intended only for investors who do not require access to their investment prior to its maturity. No withdrawal may be made before the end of the Term. The ongoing cost of funding the underlying structure that will pay any interest to you during the investment term means that the capital secure portion of the Account is only payable within 5 business days of the Maturity Date. During the investment term, it may be difficult to obtain reliable information about its value or the extent of the risks to which it is exposed.

What happens if I die before the Account matures?

In the event of the death of a sole investor or surviving joint account holder prior to the expiry of the Term, the Account will continue to the Maturity Date in the name of the executor or administrator. On the death of a joint Account holder, the money standing to the credit of the Account will be paid to or to the order of the survivor(s) within 5 business days of the Maturity Date.

What about tax?

Interest payable on the Account is subject to Deposit Interest Retention Tax ("DIRT") where applicable. In relation to both the Fixed Coupon and the Bonus Coupon, DIRT is currently payable at 30%. On any such interest, DIRT will be deducted prior to any Interest being paid. You should include this interest amount, before DIRT, in your income tax return for the year in which it is received. Both the rate of tax and tax rules are subject to change without notice.

Some investors, such as individuals over 65 and those who are permanently incapacitated, may be able to reclaim from the Revenue Commissioners any DIRT deducted from interest payable on the Account, if they are not otherwise liable to tax on the investment. Companies, pension funds, non-resident investors and registered charities may be entitled, in certain circumstances, to be paid interest without deduction of DIRT. It is the responsibility of investors to obtain any tax relief that may apply. Tax reliefs are those currently applying, are subject to change without notice and apply directly to the customer.
